

Stull and Lee Incorporated
architecture · planning

CHARLESTOWN HOUSE

BOSTON, MA

Stull and Lee, Inc. expanded the footprint of a historic house in Charlestown in order to create a much larger kitchen to meet the needs of a gourmet cook.

The firm worked closely with Boston Redevelopment Authority designers to achieve an exterior design acceptable to The Historic Society, The National Parks Service and concerned Neighbors.

The Lee Kimball Company were the contractors and provided the cabinets and countertops.

